

Charting the Complaints

Directions Each complaint in the Answer Bank could have been made by a colonist or by someone from Great Britain. Write each complaint under the correct heading below.

Answer Bank

- I was tarred and feathered.
- We don't want their troops in our homes.
- We refuse to pay a duty on tea.
- If our soldiers break the law, they should be tried in Great Britain.
- Our boycott made us lose our jobs.
- Taxation without consent is not fair.
- We don't want to stay to the East.

- Their presence in the Ohio Valley is causing trouble.
- We'll close the port of Boston after what they did.
- We need to save the East India Trading Company.
- Such a boycott is unreasonable.
- The Boston Massacre was heartless.
- Legal documents should not be taxed.
- They burned our ship and destroyed our cargo.
- We want to govern ourselves.

Colonial Complaints	British Complaints