

America's Neutral Policy Is Tested

Directions The statements below might have been made by someone from the United States, Great Britain, Germany, or France. Decide which country the speaker most likely belonged to. After each statement, write U for the United States, B for Great Britain, G for Germany, or F for France. Some answers will be two letters.

U United States
B Great Britain
G Germany
F France

1. "The United States is not acting like a neutral country." _____
2. "We re-elected our president because he kept us out of war." _____
3. "We bought many war supplies from the United States." _____ and _____
4. "The Lusitania was carrying war supplies." _____
5. "Our companies can sell war supplies in Europe." _____
6. "We want the United States to stop trading with Great Britain." _____
7. "We helped the United States during their Revolutionary War." _____
8. "We sank the Lusitania with a torpedo from a U-boat." _____
9. "The Lusitania did not have any war supplies on board." _____
10. "We are part of the Central Powers." _____
11. "We are part of the Allied Powers." _____ and _____
12. "We set up war zones in the Atlantic Ocean." _____ and _____
13. "After the Lusitania disaster, we began to turn against Germany." _____
14. "We have the same language and many of the same customs as Americans." _____
15. "Our navy tried to prevent Americans from trading with Germany." _____